

RINO of the Month October 2023

As the trees begin to change and the weather begins to cool, competition for the RINO of the Month Award is nevertheless heating up! After his constituents expressed discontent with his voting record, Representative Chadwick (HD 62, Converse, Natrona) angrily ranted to Cowboy State Daily- he even went so far as to say he won't be "pushed around" by the desires of his constituents. Representative Zwonitzer (HD 43, Laramie) and Senator Hicks (SD 11, Carbon, Sweetwater) laughably claimed that high property taxes are not a statewide issue and therefore are not deserving of a statewide solution.

Nevertheless, October's coveted award goes to none other than Senator Baldwin (HD 14, Lincoln, Sublette, Sweetwater, Uinta)- for the second time this year! During September's meeting of the Mental Health & Vulnerable Adult Task Force, Senator Baldwin spoke of a need for a "bridge between the schools and the state" in order to funnel your children into a government-run mental health monitoring program.

Senator Fred Baldwin

Senator Baldwin doesn't seem to believe that parents have any role in the mental health and wellbeing of their children- the teachers, school counselors, and undefined "state" entities will help your child when they are deemed to be in need. Who determines "need?" The "state," of course!

Senator Baldwin's dystopian idea of mental health is something out of the other major party's handbook- not the Republican Party Platform.

What is a RINO? A Republican in Name Only

Have you as a loyal Republican, gone to the polls year after year, voting for candidates with an "R" beside their name, trusting they would legislate and vote like a Republican but only to be disappointed?

Don't feel bad – so have we.

The time is long overdue to hold politicians accountable for big government, big regulation, big taxation laws – values that the Republican party does NOT support.

This is the primary reason WyoRINO.com was created – to expose liberal Wyoming Republicans who violate our Wyoming Republican values.
