

RINO of the Month June 2025

Regurgitating talking points from the Democrats, she fought against pro-life bills, protecting girls bathrooms, universal school choice, and property tax reform.

It's officially summer, which means it's time to break out the barbecue grill, tidy up your property, and enjoy some much needed sunshine. For Wyoming RINOs, the summer is also a time to recede into obscurity, hopeful that no one will remember how you voted during the Legislative session just a few months ago.

June's RINO of the Month award goes to freshman Representative Julie Jarvis (HD 57, Natrona). Representative Jarvis is the poster child for Wyoming RINOs, earning a whopping 20% score on our 2025 Scorecard.

During her first session in Cheyenne, Jarvis spent cumulative hours on the House floor attempting to weaken, derail, or destroy every of legislation aligned with the Wyoming Republican Party Platform.

Rep. Julie Jarvis

Critics dismiss WyoRINO by claiming that we engage in unfair name calling- but if someone is a Republican in Name Only, we'll call it like it is: she's a RINO.

What is a RINO? A Republican in Name Only

Have you as a loyal Republican, gone to the polls year after year, voting for candidates with an "R" beside their name, trusting they would legislate and vote like a Republican but only to be disappointed?

Don't feel bad – so have we.

The time is long overdue to hold politicians accountable for big government, big regulation, big taxation laws – values that the Republican party does NOT support.

This is the primary reason WyoRINO.com was created – to expose liberal Wyoming Republicans who violate our Wyoming Republican values.
