

RINO of the Month February 2026

Sen. Ogden Driskill

This month the Wyoming Legislature convenes for the 68th Budget Session. A jam-packed 20 day schedule, RINOs will be frothing at the mouth, desperate to identify fun new ways to grow the government and spend more of your hard-earned money.

February's RINO of the Month is a long-time staple of the Legislature. He's a member of the prestigious Joint Appropriations Committee and a big fan of big government.

Senator Ogden Driskill (SD 1) has found himself repeatedly on the losing end of 9-3 votes, joining the Appropriation Committee's two Democrats, sometimes teary-eyed, opposing basic budget cuts.

Driskill has gone out of his way to angrily defend bigger government, sticking his neck out for the failed Wyoming Business Council, which the Wyoming Republican Party condemned in 2022.

Just how mad will Senator Driskill get? Tune in to the legislative session, which begins February 9 in Cheyenne. All sessions can be streamed live on the Wyoming Legislature's YouTube channel.

Term ends 2027

What is a RINO? A Republican in Name Only

Have you as a loyal Republican, gone to the polls year after year, voting for candidates with an "R" beside their name, trusting they would legislate and vote like a Republican but only to be disappointed?

Don't feel bad – so have we.

The time is long overdue to hold politicians accountable for big government, big regulation, big taxation laws – values that the Republican party does NOT support.

This is the primary reason WyoRINO.com was created – to expose liberal Wyoming Republicans who violate our Wyoming Republican values.
